From Malo-les-Bains to Bray-Dunes, an environment like no other filled with remarkable landscapes awaits you: 3 protected dunes (Dune Dewulf in Leffrinckoucke, Dune du Perroquet in Bray-Dunes and Dune Marchand in Zuydcoote), more than 1,000 hectares of natural areas, and 1,000 years of history and maritime traditions. You're definitely in the Flanders Dunes, soon to be a "Grand Site de France". Whether you're young or old, an explorer or an enthusiast, or simply curious, come discover a coastal area that is full of surprises.

30 Nature Trails

Exploring our outdoor hiking trails is the perfect way to discover our beautiful region. Here are our Top 3 short hikes along our beautiful coast, from Gravelines to Bray-Dunes. From our historic fortifications to the dunes, the great outdoors are waiting for you!

> The maritime fortress (4 km) at Gravelines

This hike through the fortified seaside city leads you along and around the ramparts. From the wall-walks, take a moment to admire these superb historic constructions and the exceptional views of the landscape around Gravelines.

> Dune Dewulf (6 km) at Leffrinckoucke

On a 6-kilometre hike, discover this multi-faceted dune with its rich flora and fauna. Learn about the different types of dunes, from the embryonic dune along the foreshore (beach) to the wooded dune.

> Dune du Perroquet (5 km) at Bray-Dunes

A nature hike you can enjoy year round on the Dune du Perroquet. Come discover the hidden "treasures" of the beach and dune. (2€)

The CPIE organizes hikes in the dunes. Find the dates online at www.cpieflandremaritime.fr

And your little explorers will find everything they'll need to accompany you on your adventure in their dune rucksack: binoculars, a magnifying glass, worksheets, quizzes, and more. Get one free at the CPIE (in Zuydcoote) or one of the tourist offices.
